ACLU Hosts Rally at Senator Norm Coleman's Office June 26th, 2007

Join the American Civil Liberties Union of Minnesota

For an hour of action and protest against the Military Commissions Act

- Time: 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. June 26th, 2007
- Place: Senator Norm Coleman's Office 2550 University Ave W, Suite 100N St. Paul, MN 55114
- Meet outside the Senator Coleman's Office on University Ave

Habeas Corpus:

- Protects against unlawful imprisonment
- Ensures prisoners will not be detained indefinitely

The Military Commissions Act:

- Eliminates constitutional habeas corpus right
- Allows the government to hold prisoners up to five years without charges
- Allows any President to determine who is an enemy combatant
- Allows any President to decide who can be held indefinitely without charge
- Allows any President to define what is (and what is not) torture

The only thing scarier than a government who takes away these freedoms is a Congress and people who let them.
